INTERCULTURAL PERIODICALS & PUBLISHERS OF MATERIALS RELEVANT TO ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS

The Bridge (Intercultural Ed.)
Eve Lee, editor, a quarterly publication of Systran Corporation, Chicago; especially good for materials update, book reviews, and articles oriented to educators.

Culturegrams and Intercultural Learning Aids (Cultures Ed. & Intercultural Ed.)
These series of materials are published by the Language Research Center, Brigham Young University. The Center is also developing an Intercultural Data Bank and publishes other materials.

ERIC Searches
Available for "Cross-Cultural Studies Research Materials/Secondary", "Global Approach/Elementary", and "Global Approach/Secondary"

"Headline Series", Foreign Policy Association (Global Ed.)
Each year the "Headline Series" focuses on different international issues for class study, discussion, and debate by secondary school students. The Foreign Policy Association (N.Y.) also publishes other international materials.

Intercom (Global Ed.)
A quarterly publication of the Center for Global Perspectives of the Global Perspectives in Education, Inc., Charles Bloomstein, editor, New York City; provides classroom materials, resources, and ideas for teaching. The Center for Global Perspectives sometimes publishes handbooks and other materials, as well as an information exchange newsletter.

International Journal of Intercultural Education (IJIR) (Cross-Cultural Communication)
This is the official publication of the Society fo Intercultural Education, Training, and Research (SIETAR), Dan Landis, editor. SIETAR also publishes intercultural oriented books.

World Eagle (Global Ed.)
Duncan Gibson edits this monthly newsletter for grades 9-12; the Junior Eagle is for grades 5-9.

Other Intercultural Publishers

-The Center for Education and Research, Denver (Intercultural Ed.)

-The Experiment Press, Brattleboro, Vermont (Affiliated with the Experiment in International Living, the Experiment Press specializes in study abroad and experiential learning)

-Intercultural Press, Incorporated, Chicago (Intercultural Ed.)
Among other materials, the Intercultural Press publishes Interacts (George Renwick, editor), which discusses the impact of cultural differences on relationships between the U.S. and other national cultures. At present, Interacts are available for the U.S. and Australia, Mexico, Thailand, Japan, Chile, and Mayalsia, as well as for Francophone vs. Anglophone Canada.
